

Be whisked away on a mystical journey and feel what it is truly like to be treated like a queen. From afternoon tea options and cocktails to tapas servings and spa indulgence, Prana Spa knows how to throw a memorable hens party. With exotic and lavish surrounds, Prana Spa can accommodate groups of up to 25 people at one time - perfect for escaping into a Moroccan inspired fantasy of palatial proportions.

Prana Spa

The spa's luxurious Private Suites can easily be the host of your intimate indulgence surrounded by luxury, where you can choose from any of their perfectly designed indulgences or customise your own experience - you may also choose to simply lounge, feast or soak. Prana Spa is also home to The Villas Bali Hotel & Spa, one of the island's most awarded hotels. They can help you arrange accommodation for groups of any sizes in their range of 1, 2, or 3-bedroom villas with a variety of indulgent spa treatments, an in-villa BBQ dinner, and afternoon tea to cater to your hens party needs.

Not too far from Prana, on Seminyak beach, Acqua Perla Spa at the Double-Six Hotel has fashion-inspired unique spa packages designed for brides who want to make their Hen's Party as memorable as the wedding day itself. With a minimum booking of six people, brides and their girl-friends may choose from the 2.5-hour "Pamper Me Pretty" or the 2-hour "Virtue and Shine", both offering a results-driven selection of treatments that pamper from head to toe. In addition to attractive prices for each package, each girl is treated to a glass of sparkling wine and healthy canapés, the use of Acqua Perla's private locker rooms, a stylish gym with sea views, and the Moroccan inspired Hammam. Also if you like, the spa has by reservation, make-up and hair styling service to complete your look. Feeling all rejuvenated, you can then raise a toast to the bride in quintessentially Double-Six fashion.

Acqua Perla Spa

On the neighbouring beach of Petitenget, Spa Alila Seminyak welcomes the bride-to-be and her girls for a fabulous private wellness session. The bachelorette "Sunset in Paradise" spa feast treats the ladies to a 60-minute Full Body Massage of their choice, 60-minute Body Treatment or Collagen Facial, 60-minute Spa Manicure or Pedicure Gel, and a glass of sparkling wine and berries at Seasalt Beach Terrace as well as an exclusive 3-course dinner at Seasalt.

And to take the experience to new heights, the Penthouse of Alila Seminyak can be that perfect private venue to keep the private party going. At a lavish 811 square metres, the Penthouse can only be described as the ultimate retreat. Step inside to see the three bedrooms, living room, kitchen and dining room, and ideas for that fun hens party will pour in immediately. For more fun ideas, step outside to the private pool, sundeck and a spacious terrace furnished for lounging, dining and entertaining. A DRINK
OR TWO

Now this is the simplest trick in the book for having a great time with your closest friends. A bar or a hangout venue is the natural social setting that's perfect to celebrate friendship. Go alone and you'll likely make new friends; go with friends and you can talk about that sad guy who goes to the bar alone. Just remember, don't do anything stupid that you'll regret the next morning.

For that fun night with whiskies and some pool games, Single Malt is just where to go for that well-deserved drink that caps off the workday or that heady brew that accentuates the weekend. Single Malt is not necessarily your classic corner bar, though. But even with that being said, the bar is a place where men and women can have great whiskies and cocktails with a cigar, while listening to some classics from an era when music was music! The staff always responds with knowledge when asked, "which whisky would you recommend?". To make the night out even more fun, why not have a drinking game? Just head out to the bar's pool table and have a game of 9 Ball. The rules are yours to be set, and broken.

In addition to the bars, the beach club trend - swanky, all-day lounge style venues, usually with a pool perched right on the beach - has been sweeping the globe for a while. And Bali's leading names, like Finns Beach Club, has turned its respective stretches of sand on Canggu into a party hub frequented by the beautiful and the stylish - something that you and your chums might want to check out. During the day you can laze in the sun in comfort on single and double day beds on a white sand beach or swim in a stunning 30-metre infinity edge pool with swim up pool bar (and underwater speakers). At night, the beach club takes a new form, as if the starry sky and the shining moon brings out a second personality. This can really be seen during one of Finns' parties, which brings an array of international musicians to the island.

In Nusa Dua, Ayodya Beach Club is spreading colourful beanbags and umbrellas on Mengiat beach, making a trendy seaside strip for you to laze around. Here you get to enjoy their signature cocktails from 11am to 11pm. With a food and beverage purchase of only IDR 250,000, you can have access to the resort's infinity pool (with towels provided). But we suggest you come on the weekends, when a weekly party and movie screening takes place.

Travelling south to Ungasan and down to Karma Beach Club, your bonding session can feature a secluded, pristine beach. Accessed via a cliff inclination from Karma Kandara, here you're treated to blissful, barefoot days and carefree, glamorous nights. But this venue isn't a place simply to have drinks and dip your toe in the water, for you and your friends can also dive in for the ultimate in immersive, sand-and-surf-hedonism. From fun-filled days of water-sports, beach combing, and even oceanside spa treatments and cool, private cabanas, your group is sure to have a great time here. But don't leave just yet. Why not continue on to a sensual, star-filled night with DJs, live music, cocktails and seafood feasts?

RETAIL THERAPY

For some people, shopping is an art form. They have techniques for the best bargains and know the best time to shop. Cruising the malls or traditional markets with friends can never go wrong. But, those who love shopping know that when it comes to this activity, it is best to do it alone.

Bambo Blonde

Ask yourself, "Do I get a little more freedom when I'm alone?" Shopping alone indeed comes with more freedom for movement and time. You don't have to worry about browsing the street quietly and taking too long to make a decision. You don't have to feel rushed if your friends wait in a store for labels they're not that into - that goes the other way around.

Bambo Blonde

Some women tend to find clothes by themselves to avoid chitchating in the fitting room about life and love. When they shop alone, they normally go to the stores with good reputations or the ones they are familiar with. Bambo Blonde is one of the fashion brands in Bali with a good reputation. Existing for more than 10 years in the fashion industry creates a good impression in the eyes of women.

Everything available in Bambo Blonde is designed by an international design team, so ladies, you don't need a friend to tell you the quality of their product. This season Bambo Blonde is adding some fresh tropical florals to their collections with island-inspired prints to match back to their basics. They have introduced new checks and stripes with on-trend summer colours that highlight 2018. Now, ladies, you can surprise your friend by wearing one of their 'Fun' and 'playful' collections.

Similar to women, men also love to shop alone for clothes at the stores recommended by friends or the ones that are constantly producing high-quality products. Volcom is a modern lifestyle brand founded in 1991 and built on the foundation of innovation. Here, men can expect some creative spirits of youth culture with inspirations from surfing, skating and snowboarding.

Not just limited to attracting male shoppers, women can also shop for swimwear at Volcom. This Volcom Women's Simply Solid swimwear collection is primarily composed of a swim fabric knitted in Italy called ECONYL®. And for extra durability, flexibility, and the maximum UV protection rating attainable, they are knitted with LYCRA® XTRA LIFE™. This is environmentally conscious, and at the same time, makes you ladies sexy!
